

Communication Academy AMC 10/12 and AIME Prep

Winter 2010

Communication Academy is excited to announce our 2010 AMC 10/12 and AIME Prep class. These classes are designed for high achieving math students in middle and high schools, who are preparing for the 2010 AMC10/12 (American Math Contest) on 2/9/10 and 2/24/10, and AIME on 3/16/10 and 3/31/10.

Each course will discuss topics on Algebra, Number Theory and Combinatorics, Geometry and Trigonometry with Applications. Lectures will be conducted by solving problems at AMC 10/12 and AIME level and showing strategies and techniques related to the main topic. Students will be assigned homework each day on previous AMC 10/12 or AIME related problems. A portion of the class will be spent on solving difficult homework problems. For AMC 10/12 class, the instructor will go over the solutions for 2/9/10 and 2/24/10 contests. Help your child to excel in competitive high math by enrolling him/her in this important and timely AMC 10/12 and AIME class.

About the Instructor

Dr. Lucian Segă holds a Ph.D. in Mathematics from Purdue University and a B.S. in Mathematics from the University of Bucharest, Romania. Dr. Segă has served as a Math Instructor for the past 13 years at the university level, including teaching at his alma mater, Purdue University. Currently, he teaches at Stanford University in the EPGY (Education Program for Gifted Youth) program and he is also a Math Instructor at San Jose State University. In addition, Dr. Segă conducts weekly Math Competition Training Classes at San Jose Math Circle where he teaches problem solving strategies for AMC 10/12, AIME and USAMO. His main areas of expertise are in commutative algebra, number theory, and math competitions.

Dr. Lucian Segă has been a participant in Math and Science Olympiads for 13 years in Romania (a top competitor in IMO (International Math Olympiad) competition) and ranked several times at nationals in math, physics, and chemistry. He also won a Bronze Medal in the Chemistry National Olympiad while in college. He is the winner of several regional math competitions in Romania. Dr. Segă loves sharing his passion and secrets of success in math competition with younger students.
